

Co:op. Community as Opportunity: The creative archives' and users' network

Code	2014 – 3407 / 001 – 001
Programme	Creative Europe Programme, Category 2 – Grande Scale Cooperation Projects
Funding bodies	European Union-EACEA: Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency
Total budget	1.990,078 €
Duration	January 2014-November 2018 – 71 months

Collaborating Partners

- Hessisches Staatsarchiv Marburg (host institution, Germany)

Collaborating Institutions:

- 54 partners (European Universities, research institutes, state archives).
- The Department of Theatre Studies of the School of Fine Arts (University of the Peloponnese) is one of the associated partners.

Associated collaborator, UoP

Eleni Papalexiou, lecturer – Department of Theatre Studies, associated scientific collaborator, author

Summary

This European Project is carried out in 12 European countries and aims to reinforce and promote the collaboration among archive centres and other bodies involved in the preservation and investigation of our common European cultural heritage. In addition, through a series of open activities, the project seeks to mobilize the public and the local communities so that they may actively participate in the process of protecting the tangible/intangible European cultural heritage.

Website

<https://coop.hypotheses.org/category/project-partners>

Links, publications, deliverables

“Research Projects from Various Institutions”, co:op | community as opportunity: the creative archives' and users' network, 10.09.2016.