Summary

The European Research Project ARCH-Archival Research & Cultural Heritage focuses on the artistic work and the archive of Romeo Castellucci and his company, the Societàs Raffaello Sanzio. The Project runs in Italy, Greece and other European countries and aims to conduct primary research in the field of theatre genetics and cultural documentation. The ARCH Project is oriented along two axes: comprehensive study and analysis of invaluable primary materials, and the organizational tasks required for the documentation, digitization and diffusion of those materials
